Champion - Twelve (12) stars are required to claim a CHAMPION status with the following requisites:

1. A maximum of three stars to have been won at a young stock show, or under adult age classification.
2. Stars have been awarded no less than 30% on ASRC challenge certificates by least three (3) ASRC or ASRC approved judges.
3. A signed copy of the original challenge certificates must be forwarded to ASRC with the application form to register the rabbit as champion.

Grand Champion - twenty four (24) stars are required to claim a GRAND CHAMPION status with the following requisites:

1. A maximum of three stars to have been won at a young stock show, or under adult age classification.
2. Stars have been awarded no less than 30% on ASRC challenge certificates by least four (4) ASRC or ASRC approved judges.
3. A signed copy of the original challenge certificates must be forwarded to ASRC with the application form to register the rabbit as grand champion.

Supreme Champion - thirty six (36) stars are required to claim a SUPREME CHAMPION status with the following requisites:

1. A maximum of three stars to have been won at a young stock show, or under adult age classification.
2. Stars have been awarded no less than 30% on ASRC challenge certificates by at least five (5) ASRC or ASRC approved judges.
3. A signed copy of the original challenge certificates must be forwarded to ASRC with the application form to register the rabbit as supreme champion.

It should be noted, in addition to a colour line challenge certificate with the show's star grading, Best Fancy, Best Lop, Best Fur, Best Rex and Best Exhibit In Show all carry an additional 1 star grading.

The administrative Committee of ASRC are responsible for granting of championship status to affiliated Clubs. Members are requested to obtain an appropriate form to apply for registration of a championship.
